I have read and understand the educational rights and services under the federal McKinney-Vento Act on the reverse side of this form.

SCHOOL DMT USE ONLY: Student meets MVA status (as evidenced above) and IS already coded in FOCUS Yes No DMT INITIALS [] Pony to Brenda Johnson at Clearview Adult Ed, Rt B2

If you marked any of the items in the section below the dotted line, your child has the following rights, as defined in the federal McKinney-Vento Act that protects the educational rights of students in transitional housing situations:

- ✓ Student can continue to attend the school that he/she attended before the situation occurred even if they are now living out-of-zone for the duration of the school year.
- ✓ Parent can request assistance with PCS bus transportation.
- ✓ Student is entitled to receive free meals for the entire school year.
- ✓ Student can participate in school programs equal to students that have stable housing.
- ✓ Student must be immediately enrolled in school, even if lacking a permanent address or required documents such as proof of residency, immunization records etc. Additional time is provided to gather any missing documentation.
- ✓ If enrollment dispute is made, the student can continue to attend school while the dispute is being heard and resolved.

PCS Policy 5111.01 mandates that families/youth who are in transition or are experiencing homelessness will not be stigmatized.

Family/youth housing information shall be kept confidential to the maximum extent possible in order to provide for the student's educational needs. PCS staff may share this information with personnel such as the Homeless Liaison, the data management tech, the student's teachers, school counselor, social worker or other staff directly designated as working with the families/youth in transitional housing situations in the district. The school staff should reassure the family/youth that all housing status information will be kept confidential. PCS staff will not contact a landlord to verify a student's housing status.

McKinney-Vento Act (MVA) eligibility is good for one school year

School-based MVA Contacts can provide enrollment and educational supports, referrals to community and housing organizations, and advocacy as related to the McKinney-Vento Act. For further information about the rights and provisions of the McKinney-Vento Act, please contact the HEAT Office at 727-507-4766.
